LOVE YOUR FOLKS-IMPORTANCE OF INTERGENERATIONAL RELATIONSHIP

BY-PRAGATI THAKUR

While growing up nothing was better than going to grandparents' home. With their innocent and loving presence around us it seemed like all our worries vanished away. From the delicious food they made for us to the lovely and comical stories they told us, everything made our lives much easier. The intergenerational relationship that we shared also helped in keeping traditions alive. But all good things must come to an end.

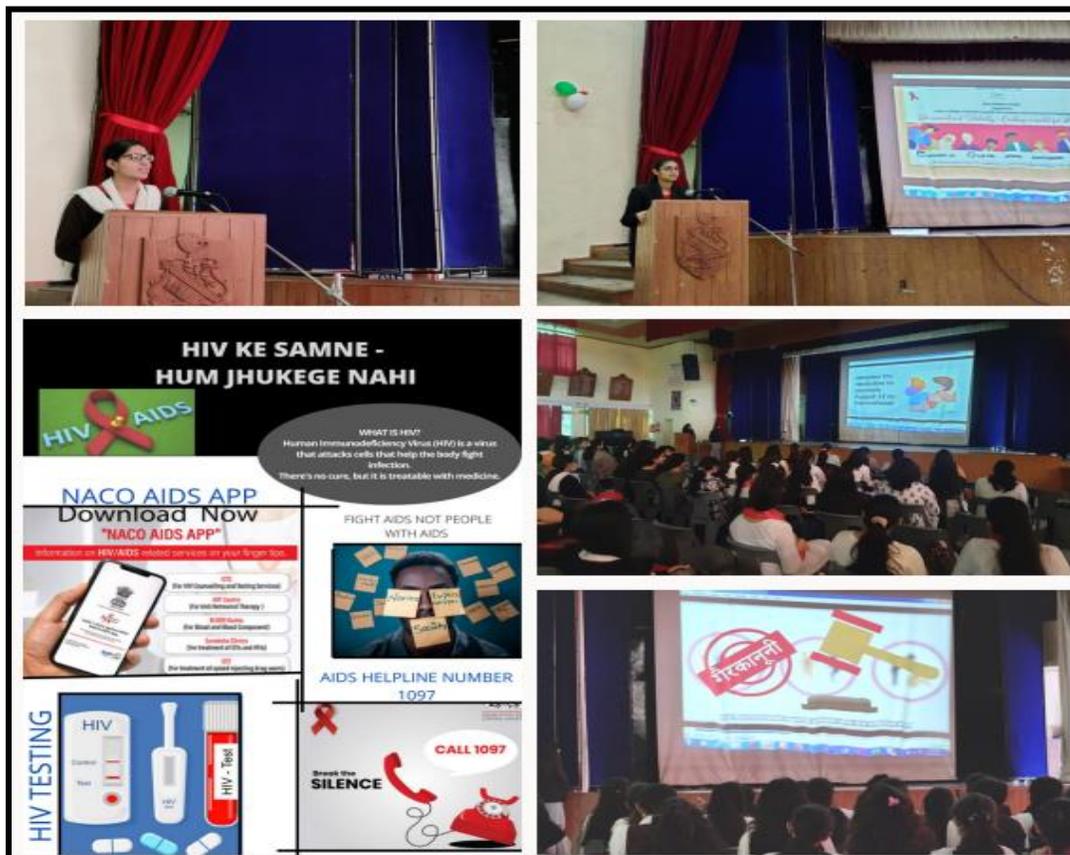

The world is caught up in a rat race and now we are not able to give any attention to those good souls who gave us the most attention when we were young. Nowadays with the increase in the needs every person has become selfish and only wants to fulfill his own needs and desires. They want to live a life full of luxury and in order to make their dream turn into reality they work day and night to make a better life for themselves. They see these intergenerational relationships
