GUEST LECTURE: PREPARATION OF COMPETITIVE EXAMINATIONS

Objective: To create awareness about the recent trends of competitive exams among students.

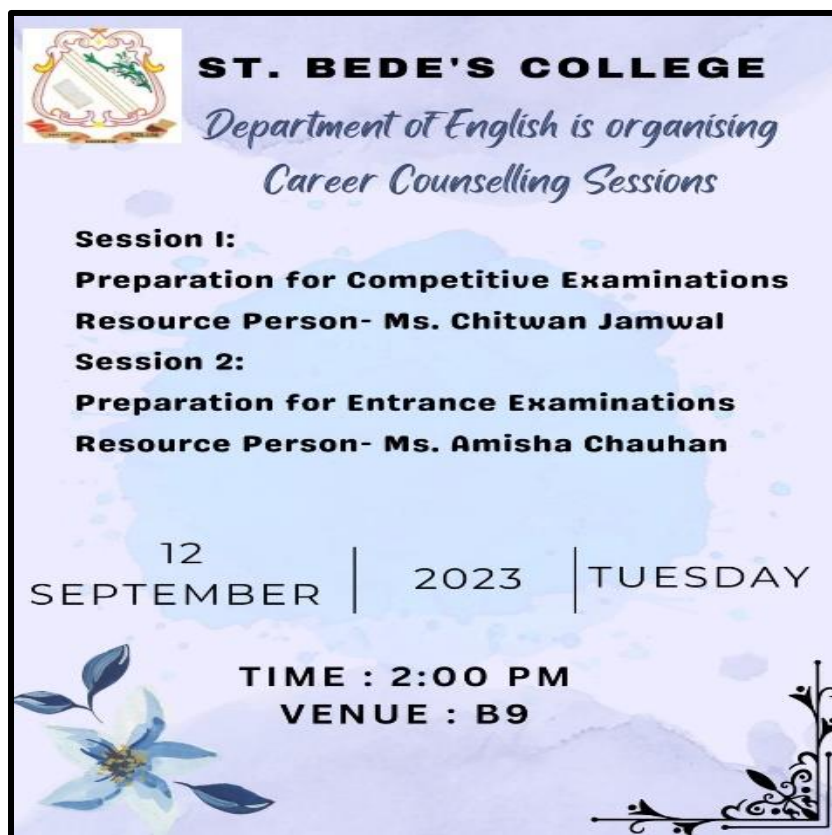

Description:

The Department of English, St. Bede's College, organised a career counselling session on September 12, 2023, at 2.00 p.m. Teachers and students in the department attended the session. It was an interactive session with a talk followed by a round of discussion on "Preparation for Competitive Examinations". Ms. Chitwan Jamwal, an alumna of the college, was the resource person. Students were guided on how to prepare for exams like NET, GATE, etc. It was a very interactive session attended by students from the UG and PG programs. Students from the PG program asked questions regarding preparation for the UGC-NET/JRF examination and prospects of pursuing further studies in English language and literature.

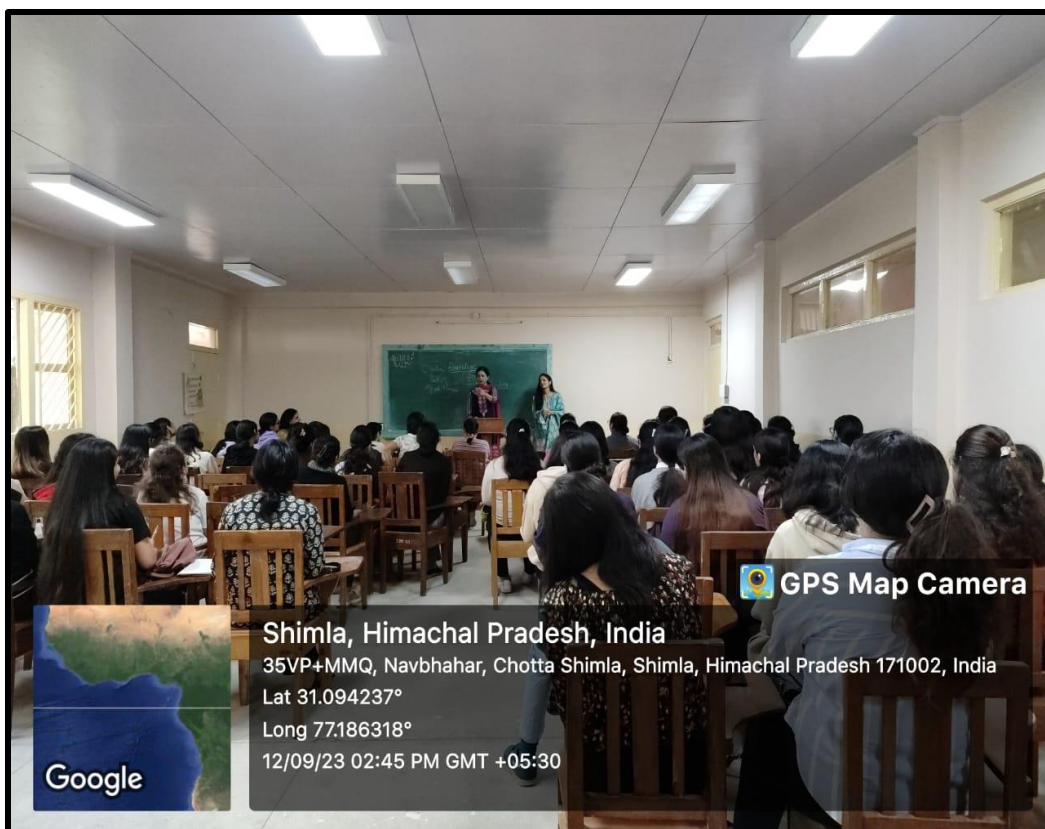

The session came to an end with a discussion on various approaches that the students can follow.

Outcomes:

- The students became aware of how to prepare for competitive exams and felt motivated to work hard.
- This experience enlightened students on the various prospects of pursuing their degrees.
