CAREER GUIDANCE AND COUNSELLING SESSION

Women Cell, St. Bede's College and Reserve Bank of India

Objectives: The objective is to inspire and prepare students, particularly women, to pursue fulfilling careers in banking and finance, contributing to the nation's economic growth and stability. Also, it aims to increase women's enrolment as careers within the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) by introducing them to the various services and roles offered by the RBI. To educate women about the broader banking sector, emphasizing the critical functions of the RBI and highlighting the specific privileges and opportunities available to women in this field.

Descriptions: The Women Cell of St. Bede's College organized a Career Guidance and Counselling Session on November 7, 2023, exclusively for final-year students. The session was inaugurated by Shri R.S. Amar, Regional Director of the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), and witnessed active participation from 200 students, along with representatives from the RBI. Shri R.S. Amar delivered an inspiring motivational talk, emphasizing the importance of setting career goals and pursuing excellence. This was followed by a detailed presentation by Ms. Ritushri Meshram, AGM of RBI, who provided an insightful overview of RBI's work culture, salary structure, age criteria for various roles, and women-centric policies designed to foster inclusivity and empowerment. The session was highly informative, offering students valuable guidance on career opportunities within the RBI while highlighting the institution's commitment to supporting women professionals.

Outcomes: The primary outcome of this activity was that it provided students with a comprehensive understanding of the banking sector and enlightened them with future opportunities, specific privileges available to women in this field.
