Collaborating Agency: Government Primary School, Sanjauli

No. of Participants: 56

Date: September 29, 2023 (onwards)

Objectives:

- To enhance the overall personality of the school children.
- To improve their confidence level.
- To augment their innate leadership qualities and to improve children's interpersonal communication skills

Description: The St. Bede's College structured a development program on Health and Personality Development classes for the students of Government Primary School, Sanjauli. The classes are organized to raise confidence, strength and to build an optimistic personality of young children. The interaction also eliminates negative behavior that hinders the growth and success of the students. These classes also created general awareness about health amongst the students of the school.

Dr. Ashwani, from Department of Physical Education, St. Bede's College has been taking Health and Personality Development classes of the school children. The classes have been taken on every Tuesday and Friday in a week. In each class a new topic was taught. The topics were based on health, physical, emotional, psychological, spiritual and professional aspects of the personality development. After the class students were evaluated randomly to observe the change in them.

Outcome: Personality development plays an important role in helping students to build a strong and positive foundation for the future. The students were guided to develop good study habits and strengthening their inter-personal skills. They were also made aware about the importance of health and hygiene. As quality education is an important part of any student's life, these classes played a vital role in the overall development of the school children.

ENLIGHTENING MINDS: ST. BEDE'S ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT SETS SAIL ON WORLD LITERACY DAY"

Collaborating agency: Government Primary School, Sanjauli

Number of Participants: 8

Date: September 8, 2023

In celebration of World Literacy Day, the Economics Department at St. Bede's College Shimla orchestrated a meaningful excursion to kindle a passion for literacy and education among young learners. This collaborative initiative involved both faculty and students, converging at the Government School in Sanjauli, Himachal Pradesh, to create a lasting impact on students from LKG to 5th class.

Objectives: The primary objectives of this excursion were to promote literacy and educational awareness, emphasizing the importance of learning in personal and societal development.

Description: The day unfolded with a compelling skit performance by college students, illuminating the crucial role of education and literacy in shaping one's life. This theatrical endeavor captured the attention of the young audience, delivering a powerful message that resonated throughout the day.

Interactive sessions followed suit, featuring storytelling sessions conducted by college students to instill a love for books and reading. To blend education with enjoyment, a series of fun and educational games were organized, enhancing cognitive abilities and reinforcing the idea that learning can be both enjoyable and rewarding.

As a gesture of encouragement and support, the Economics Department distributed stationery items among the students, including notebooks, pencils, and erasers, aimed at facilitating their educational journey. Furthermore, the introduction of interactive learning materials aimed to foster a more engaging learning environment within the classroom.

This collaborative effort involving the Economics Department, college students, and the dedicated staff of the Government School showcased the impact of community engagement. It underscored the pivotal role educational institutions can play in spreading awareness about literacy and education.

POVERTY ERADICATION WEEK-"EMPATHY IN ACTION"

Collaborating Agency:

Number of participants: 11

Date: October 11 -17, 2023

Dedicated to making a meaningful impact on societal issues, the Economics Department fervently observed Poverty Eradication Week from October 11th to 17th, 2023. This week-long initiative saw active student engagement in a diverse array of impactful activities, including poster making, film screenings, Nukkad Natak (street play), and a sensitization program. The collective efforts of the students played a pivotal role in the success of the week, creating heightened awareness about poverty and eliciting emotions of empathy and compassion within the college community and beyond.

Objectives: The overarching objectives of Poverty Eradication Week were to raise awareness about poverty and stimulate emotions of empathy and compassion among students and the general public. Through various mediums, the Economics Department aimed to foster a deeper understanding of the challenges faced by those living in poverty.

A standout event during Poverty Eradication Week was the screening of the impactful short film titled "Hunger" at 2:50 on October 13, 2023. The objective was clear: to employ visual storytelling to convey the harsh realities faced by individuals living in poverty. The film struck a chord with the students, evoking emotional responses, including tears, as they witnessed the struggles of the male protagonist striving to make ends meet.

Following the film screening, a film review competition added an interactive dimension to the event. Participants were tasked with providing their perspectives on the overall impact of the film. Entries were meticulously evaluated by the esteemed judge, Ms. Annette, considering criteria such as content quality, vocabulary usage, reference to the film, and clarity of thoughts.

Outcomes: The film screening and subsequent review competition effectively achieved the goal of evoking empathy among students for those living below the poverty line. This activity served as a powerful medium to sensitively address the issues surrounding poverty, prompting thoughtful reflections and discussions among the participants. The success of these initiatives during Poverty Eradication Week underscores the commitment of the Economics Department and its students to creating awareness and understanding that extends beyond the classroom.

"SEEDS OF CHANGE: A CHARITABLE OUTREACH BY THE ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT"

Collaborating Agency: Community

Number of Participants: 11

Date: November 24, 2023

On November 24, 2023, the Economics Department demonstrated its commitment to social responsibility by conducting a community outreach activity at Indira Gandhi Medical College, Shimla. This benevolent initiative, conducted under the banner of "Seeds of Change," aimed to make a meaningful impact on the lives of individuals at the Cancer hospital, IGMC.

Objectives: To engage in social service by contributing essential grocery items and serving langar at the Cancer hospital, IGMC.

To instill empathy, compassion, and a sense of gratitude among students through direct involvement in community service.

To support the non-profit community service, GURU KA LANGAR, run by social activist Mr. Sarbjeet Singh's NGO Almighty Blessings.

The donated grocery items were procured through funds generated from departmental events, including the World Savings Day Donation Drive, Mehndi Competition, and the Diwali Carnival. Both students and faculty actively participated in the event, serving a complimentary langar to patients and their attendees at the Cancer hospital, IGMC.

Students engaged in various tasks, such as serving food, distributing water, and assisting authorities in attending to people at the langar service. The experience provided a firsthand understanding of the values of sharing and service to humanity.

Outcome: The "Seeds of Change" community outreach activity at the langar service, IGMC Shimla, was a resounding success. The event not only achieved its primary objectives of social service but also left a lasting impact on the participating students. The engagement fostered a sense of responsibility and ignited a fiery zeal among students to contribute towards humanitarian aid.

Mr. Sarbjeet addressed the students, sharing his journey and emphasizing the importance of working for a greater cause. The activity encouraged students to recognize the transformative power of small acts of kindness and motivated them to continue working towards building a better society and nation.

ANECDOTE NARRATION & RALLY TO OBSERVE “INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE”

Theme: End Racism and Build Peace

Collaborating agency: Community

Number of Participants: 25

Date: September 21-22, 2023

Objective: The Department of Political Science and History organized a session on anecdote narration to observe “International Day of Peace”. It aimed to create an awareness among the youth about the importance of peace and ways to avoid local, national and international conflicts.

Description: The event began by underlining the importance of global peace and harmony. It featured three compelling anecdotal narratives from participants. These participants were from BA III Year who narrated the stories of racism which were prevalent in the societies of USA, Australia and South Africa. They also suggested the ways and means through which harmony is to maintain in the world highlighting important roles of international non-state actors. These anecdote narrations were followed by a lecture which emphasized on social cleavages created through racism, casteism, gender biasness and need to reduce such practices. On September 22, 2023 a rally was organized by the department which started from Sanjauli Chowk to Navbahar. The effort to sensitize and spread message of harmony and peace was remarkable and the event ended on a successful note giving message of peace and non-violence.

Outcome: The event ended on a successful note by sensitizing students about the impact of conflict on general lives and methods to prevent them. These methods include use of different tracks of diplomacy, ending arms race, cutting down usage and production of Weapons of Mass Destruction. It further emphasized on the roles which different individuals, communities, institutions can play to create a harmonious world.

Collaborating Agency: Namgyal Monastery, Old Age Home Sanjauli

Number of Participants: 10

Date: November 04, 2023

Objective: The Department of Political Science organized an extension activity on November 04, 2023, under which, the students visited Namgyal Monastery, Old Age Home situated at Sanjauli. The purpose of this activity was to promote social responsibility among students and create a sense of empathy towards the elderly members of our society who are abandoned by their own children and families. The initiative also aimed to offer companionship to the elderly people and foster an inter-generational understanding thus creating a positive impact on the lives of elderly residents.

Description: The students visited an Old Age Home situated at Sanjauli to reach out to the most vulnerable section of our society under the theme “Nurturing the Abandoned: Spreading Smiles”. Therefore, they organized numerous recreational activities such as games, skit, singing competition to bring striking smiles on all faces. The students got an exceptional experience after interacting with the aged people and knowing about their real life stories. They also distributed fruits, sweets and promised to offer all kind of support whenever needed. The residents appreciated the companionship and efforts made by the students and making them feel valued and cherished.

Impact and Outcomes: - The students gained valuable life lessons and a practical understanding of the challenges faced by the elderly, enhancing their empathy and compassion for the bigger cause. The visit also created a positive atmosphere at the old age home. Moreover, the outreach enhanced the spirits and enthusiasm of the residents and staff. This outreach activity overall fostered a sense of social responsibility and community engagement among the participants.
