• Declamation Competition

The Electoral Literacy Club in collaboration with the Department of Political Science organized a Declamation Competition on December 3, 2021. The event started at 2:00 pm with the felicitation of B.L.O supervisor Dr. Rajeev Tegta and his team. The judging panel comprised of :

- Ms. Anuja Sharma, HOD English
- Ms. Shramja Munjal, HOD Botany
- Mr. Pankaj Ashish, HOD Geography

The participants enlightened the audience with their provoking thoughts on “Importance of Election in Indian Democracy”, “Participation of Youngsters in Electoral process”, and “Electronic Voting Machine”. The event comprised of two categories in which Divyanshi Damseth, Rashi Bhardawj , Ritisha Raj of B.A 2nd year held top positions and were therefore awarded with token of appreciation.

The main objective of the event was to reach out to the young generation and sensitize them about the importance of elections and the vital role which they can play in making and shaping of political system of the country. The Program thus ended on a very convincing note as it successfully spread a message on Electoral Awareness which implicitly or explicitly impacts the entire socio-economic structure of any democracy.
