WORKSHOP ON "CREATIVE WRITING"

A workshop on creative writing was organised on September 25, 2019 by the department of English. The resource person was Ms. Sunita de Costa.

Objective: The objective of the workshop was to mentor the students on several aspects of creative writing, editing and publishing.

Ms. Sunita de Costa spoke at length about her recently published book, Saudade. She explained how this book unveiled layers of movement by way of migration, colonization and imperialism. She talked about the process of writing this novel and the points she kept in mind as a writer. Ms. De Costa read out some excerpts from her novel and shared her thoughts related to writing those pieces with the students.

Outcome: The students understood the importance of reading as a part of a creative writer's development. Also, they recognized how critical reading supplies inspiration and ideas.

NATIONAL SEMINAR ON "LANGUAGE, CULTURE AND LITERATURE"

St. Bede's College, in collaboration with the English Language Teachers' Association of India (ELTAI) Shimla chapter, organized a National Conference on 'Culture, Language and Literature.' The event was a gathering of eminent personalities from the field of literature, including resource persons from overseas and different states of India.

Objectives: The conference aimed to promote literature, language and culture and a platform for the researchers to showcase their work and to discuss new strategies for enhancement of English language, keeping in view its cultural, political and economic impact in India.

The conference was held on December 4-5, 2019, at St. Bede's College, Shimla. Prof. Khalid Almashikhi from Oman, Prof. ZN Patil, Prof. Paritosh Duggar from Udaipur, Prof. Pankaj K. Singh, Prof. Girija Sharma, Prof. Praveen Kumar, Prof. Meenakshi.F Paul, Dr. Suneela Sharma, and Dr. Anita Sharma were some of the notable personalities who graced the conference. More than 70 research papers were presented by scholars, researchers, and students from different colleges across India. Students from Kotshera College, Government Degree College Kandaghat, RKMV, and St. Bede's College participated in the conference. The research papers presented focused on various themes, including literature, language, culture, and education.

Two books authored by Dr. Anita Sharma and Dr. Shusheela Sharma were also released at the conference.

The participants and the organizers were unison in their gratitude to St. Bede's College, Shimla and ELTAI Shimla chapter for having organized this conference where the researchers and scholars got a single window platform to highlight their work, exchange ideas and collaborate with others in this field. It helped promote the study of literature language and culture and the need for research in this field.

Outcomes: The conference concluded with more than seventy research papers presented in the field of literature and into its various cultural linguistic aspects. The exchange of ideas between resource persons from overseas and other states of India ensured the development of diverse perspectives and insights in the field of literature. The students also got this platform to interact with the resource persons and were exposed to new ideas in their research work and presentation skills with the help of diverse aspects of literature, culture and language.

WORKSHOP ON CREATIVE WRITING

A workshop on creative writing was conducted on November 17, 2021 to focus on students' writing skills.

Objective: The main objective of the workshop was to nurture the students' creative talent and also to hone their writing skills.

The resource person for this was Dr. Usha Bande, a renowned writer, translator and critic. She spoke at length about different techniques of creative writing and the several creative processes involved in writing fiction. She talked of the various reading and writing strategies, adding that the only qualification to be a creative writer is infinite imagination and a desire to write.

Through personal anecdotes and short stories, she shared tips on effective writing. Dr. Bande emphasized the importance of becoming aware of one's surroundings and noting down ideas coming to the mind and analyzing and thinking deeply about them. The session was interactive, and the students had a fruitful discussion with her.

Outcome: The students were able to understand a variety of forms and structures of creative genres. They were also able to learn the techniques and devices needed for creative writing.

WORKSHOP ON THE MLA-STYLE SHEET

On the 14th and 15th of October 2022, the Department of English at St. Bede's College, Shimla, organised a workshop for their M.A. students on the MLA style sheet.

Objective-The workshop aimed to help the students understand the format and citing sources according to the MLA Handbook (9th edition). The workshop was conducted by the faculty, Ms. Annette James.

Session Overview: Ms. Annette James started the session by introducing the MLA style sheet and its importance in academic writing. She explained how the MLA Handbook, released by the Modern Language Association, helps researchers present their work in a standard and understandable design while allowing researchers to indulge in their research flexibly.

Ms. James then focused on the format of academic writing and how to cite sources according to the MLA style sheet. She shared some examples of correct citations and how to make references to avoid plagiarism. She also explained the importance of acknowledging sources and the consequences of not doing so.

The students were given handouts with tips for following the style sheet and academic writing. They were then guided step-by-step to cite sources, make references, and format their academic assignments according to the MLA style sheet. The students were encouraged to adopt the format to write their assignments to prepare them well for research writing when pursuing further studies.

Interactive Session: After the presentation, the session was opened for an interactive discussion, where students were encouraged to ask questions and share their views. The students asked various questions related to the MLA style sheet, citing sources, and the format of academic writing. Ms. James answered the questions in detail and provided some valuable insights.

Outcome: The workshop was a great success, and the students benefited a lot from the insights shared by Ms. James. The session was informative, interactive, and provided practical tips that students can use to improve their academic writing. Such workshops help students improve their academic writing skills and prepare them for research writing when pursuing further studies.

HOW TO BUILD AN AMAZING RESUME/CV

On October 19, 2022, the Department of English at St. Bede's College organised an online presentation on "How to Build an Amazing Resume/ CV". The presentation aimed to help the students understand how to create an effective Resume/ Curriculum Vitae for job applications. The presentation was conducted by Dr. Deepika Pant, Assistant Professor, Department of English Kumaun University, Nainital, Uttarakhand.

Session Overview: Dr. Deepika Pant started the session by introducing the importance of a Resume/ Curriculum Vitae in job applications. She explained the significance of presenting oneself effectively on paper and how a well-crafted Resume/ CV can make all the difference in getting shortlisted for a job interview.

Dr. Pant then focused on the key elements of a Resume/ CV, such as personal details, educational qualifications, work experience, skills, achievements, and references. She shared some examples of effective Resumes/ CVs and explained how to customize them according to the requirements of different countries and job profiles.

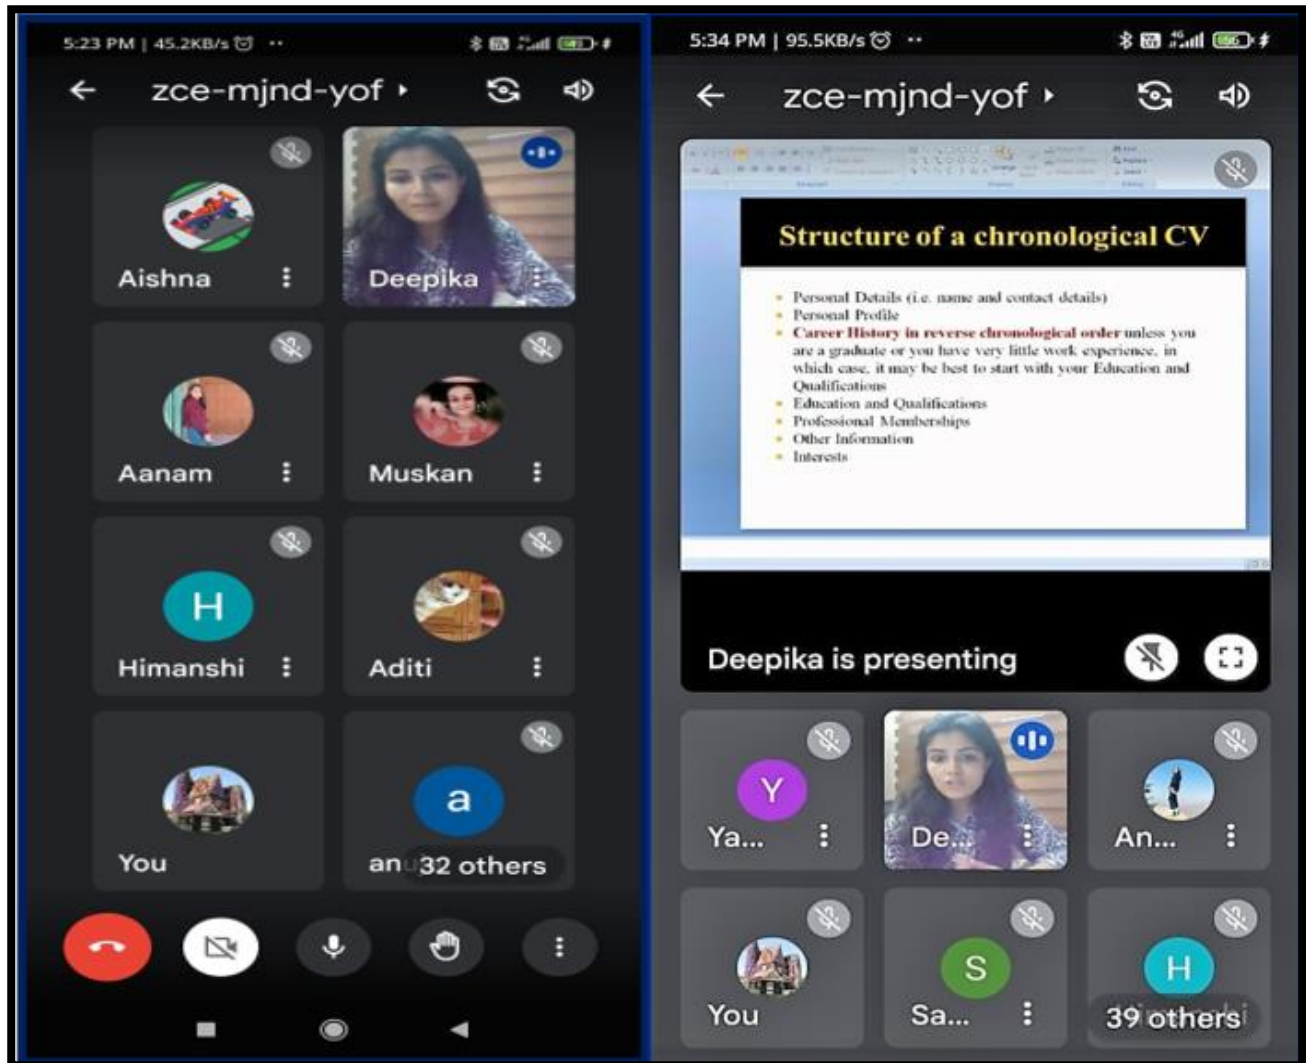

The students were given practical tips on how to write their Resume/ CV, such as using simple language, highlighting their strengths, and tailoring their Resume/ CV to suit the job they are applying for. Dr. Pant also stressed the importance of being truthful while writing a Resume/ CV, as any false information can have serious consequences.

Interactive Session: After the presentation, the session was opened up for an interactive discussion, where students were encouraged to ask questions and share their views. The students asked various questions related to building an effective Resume/ CV. Dr. Pant answered the questions in detail and provided some valuable insights.

Outcome- The session was interactive, and provided practical tips that students can use to improve their Resume/ CV writing skills. The students gained a better understanding of the key elements of a Resume/ CV, such as personal details, educational qualifications, work experience, skills, achievements, and references. They are now aware of the importance of presenting themselves effectively on paper and how a well-crafted Resume/ CV can make all the difference in getting shortlisted for a job interview.
