Talk on Anti Ragging Day

2023-2024

Objective:

The objective of the Talk on Anti Ragging Day, held on August 12, 2023, by the Anti Ragging Cell of St. Bede's College, was to raise awareness about the legal consequences of ragging, create a safe and respectful environment, and promote a culture of empathy and tolerance within the college community.

Description:

The event took place in the college auditorium, where distinguished legal expert Ms. Sheetal Sharma Vyas, a criminal lawyer from the High Court of Himachal Pradesh, delivered a compelling talk on the topic of Anti Ragging. Through her expertise, Ms. Vyas provided insights into the legal ramifications of ragging and emphasized the importance of fostering a safe and respectful environment within the college.

The talk aimed to educate students about the severe consequences of ragging, both legally and morally, while also promoting a culture of empathy and tolerance. It provided students with valuable information on how to recognize, prevent, and report instances of ragging, thereby contributing to the ongoing efforts to eradicate this harmful practice.

Outcome:

The Talk on Anti Ragging Day was highly successful in achieving its objectives. By raising awareness about the legal consequences of ragging and promoting a culture of respect and tolerance, the event helped create a safer environment for students. The insights shared by Ms. Sheetal Sharma Vyas empowered students to recognize and address instances of ragging, fostering a sense of responsibility and empathy within the college community. Overall, the event played a crucial role in promoting a positive and supportive atmosphere within the college, contributing to the well-being and security of all students.
