

TEACHER'S DAY

Date: September 5, 2023

Event name: Teacher's Day

Description:

The teacher's day function was celebrated on September 5, 2023. The decorations combined lots of style and made the auditorium of the college look elegant as well as graceful. The stage was decorated with handmade flowers, made with tissue paper and hand painted to give the illusion of hydrangeas, balloons were also used to decorate the auditorium. Two kinds of handmade flowers were used: one kind was of small white flowers and the other kind was the bigger, colorful flowers. The flowers were painted in pink, blue, yellow and green keeping in mind the prominent colour scheme of old Bollywood movies, which was the theme of the function.

The invites of the function were quite spectacular and on theme. Five invites were made by the fine arts society. The invites were in the form of a clapper board, an iconic device used in filmmaking, usually written on the board as the scene name, number, and title of the film, the fine arts society members showcased their creativity and wrote the details of the function in place of the movie details, as the function organized for Teacher's Day Celebration was no less than a movie. The fine arts Society members even made title badges for the teachers. The titles were given by the students of all the different departments. They were then made into badges for the teachers, which were on theme for old Bollywood movies. The badges were in the shape of circles, full of colour and design, which showcased the different styles of the fine arts society members.

Overall, the event's decoration was extremely well planned and extraordinarily done. It showcased the variety of styles of the members and their talent.

OZONE DAY CELEBRATIONS

Date: September 16, 2023

Event name: Ozone Day Poster Making Competition

Description:

The ozone layer is mostly found in the lower part of Earth's air. It's important because it can block about 97-99% of the bad ultraviolet rays from the sun that can hurt life on our planet. Without the ozone layer, many people could get skin problems and have weaker immune systems. Therefore, the Fine Arts Society celebrated World Ozone Day on September 16, 2023 by organizing a themed poster making competition.

The competition was open for all the students and was compulsory for the fine arts society members. The competition resulted in numerous beautiful and unique posters made by the students. This helped the students to not only bring out their creativity and showcase their talents but also to spread awareness about the importance of the day.

Ms. Preeti from botany department along with Mr. Sanjeev Kumar and Mr. Anoop Dilta from the geography department were the judges of the competition.

1st position - Samriti (B. Sc. 3rd year Medical)

2nd position - Aditi (B. Sc. 2nd year)

3rd position - Jahnvi Wali (Psychology Hons 2nd year)

4th position - Garima Kathiyal (English hons 2nd year)

The fine arts society look forward to more amazing events like this, with such participation from the college.

FRESHER'S DAY CELEBRATIONS

Date: September 20, 2023

Event name: Decorations for Fresher's

Description: Freshers Day is one of the most important days when it comes to students of the college. This day provides the seniors an opportunity to welcome their juniors and make them feel at home. This day is the celebration of new members joining our Bedian community.

The Fresher's event was organized on the September 20, 2023. The theme for the event was Illuminous. The auditorium was decorated accordingly, which resulted in an elegant, vibrant environment for the event. The stage was decorated with CDs to give it a fresh party look. The CDs were recycled as they were collected from the college students itself. Along with mesh fabric and paper flowers to tie it all in.

The invites given out to the Principal, Chief Guests, Teaching and Non-Teaching staff were also made by the members of Fine Arts Society. Envelopes were made out of Black Chart, and had three individual cards inside, revealing the invitation as well as the event's theme, Venue, time etc.

Overall, you could clearly see the creativity of the members of Fine Arts Society shine through the decorations, which would indeed not be possible without the guidance of the supervisors.
